The annual training course will bring together anti-corruption practitioners from all over the world, and is designed to help build the capacity to develop and implement effective anticorruption policies and measures. The 2020 training program will focus on Chapter 2 (Preventive Measures) and Chapter 5 (Asset Recovery) of the United Nations Convention against Corruption (UNCAC) by addressing topics such as evaluation of the implementation of anti-corruption policies, assessment of corruption risks in laws, protection of whistleblowers, anti-corruption training, and asset recovery.

The applicant should be a working-level official of an anti-corruption agency or other government organization responsible for preventing or investigating corruption; be fluent in English; be selected by the organization that he or she belongs to, and recommended by the head of the organization.

We believe that the training program will provide the participants with a good opportunity to enhance their knowledge and skills useful for anti-corruption practitioners. Therefore, it would be greatly appreciated if you could nominate qualified candidates in your organization to apply for the training course no later than Friday, 10 April 2020.

An application form as well as course information is attached. For details, please contact Ms. So-yeong Yoon, Deputy Director of the Training Management Division, Anti-Corruption Training Institute (Phone: +82-43-901-6142, E-mail: yoonsoy@korea.kr, yoonsoy@gmail.com).

We look forward to welcoming the excellent staff member of your organization in Korea.

Sincerely,

So-yeong Yoon (Ms.)
